ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY: In about six more weeks St. Vincent de Paul will be preparing the Christmas hampers again. There is already a list of 28 requests for hampers and many more will come. For this we need your financial support as we have very little funds in the bank left. We all know that the price of groceries has gone up quite a bit which makes it very difficult for the people in need to buy the necessary food products. Hopefully we all can help them by supporting our Society with a donation (big or small) from all the parishioners. The last three years about $ 6,000.00 to $7,000.00 were spent on Christmas hampers. Therefore, your financial support will be very much appreciated. Non perishable food items can be dropped off in the boxes provided at the back of the church.

We remember our deceased parishioners who died since November 1, 2014.

Tom Boguski, Mary Cahill, Nellie Cavell, Sharon Courtage, Mary Curcic, William Davidson, John Forget, Christine Goldie, Marion Hannah, William Lavery, Lorraine Jourdain, Robert Labelle, Cecile Lavigne, Francis Liem, Maria Nofield, Paul Paraguas, Neville Smith, Helen Unilowski, Sixto Velasco, William Walker, John Welsh.

THANK YOU: A big thank you to Kathleen Kasper-Tucker for a wonderful piano recital evening on Saturday, November 7. Thanks also to Arthur Tucker and Angela Levy for overseeing everything. The parish made $ 2,125 from the piano recital.
