The events of the last few weeks, and even more those of the last few days, have understandably raised concerns and questions for all of us. While we cannot know what the full impact of the COVID 19 virus will be, we can begin to plan, taking our lead from civil, and where appropriate, Church authorities.

First, the health and safety of ourselves and our loved ones (especially our elder sisters and brothers) should be paramount. We can all do our part to lessen the impact of this deadly virus, namely avoiding hand contact with our faces, washing our hands frequently, maintaining a safe distance from others, and as much as possible, avoiding public areas.

Because public gatherings have been restricted, Masses have been cancelled until further notice. We have set up a YouTube channel as we celebrate the Sunday Eucharist as well as the Easter Triduum services to maintain contact with parishioners who might be interested. We do not, at this point, have the capabilities to live-stream but these services will be uploaded in a timely fashion. You can click on the link above to access this channel. Our prayers are with you as we endure these trying times. Fr. Jack, OMI
